JOE LEDOUX - ARTIST BIO

Joe Ledoux grew up in Hubbardston, MA and received his BFA from the Massachusetts College of Art and Design. Joe is a visual and performance artist who blends his three favorite artforms: sleight of hand, skateboarding, and painting. He is a member of the McBride Magic and Mystery School in Las Vegas and performed with Le Grand David, which held the Guinness world record for the longest running magic show. Ledoux has exhibited at The West End Museum and GBH's Digital Mural. He performed at The Institute of Contemporary Art and was featured as a Polly Thayer Starr Artist at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum.